Admission Policy

Identification

- At the test center, you will be asked to provide a valid, non-expired, government issued form of identification. In nearly all cases you will need to bring your passport. If you do not have your passport due to an ongoing visa application, you must request it back to present on the day of your test.
- In a limited number of cases you may be able to use a government issued National ID rather than a passport. Exceptions are listed on <http://pearsonpte.com/acceptable-id/>
- If you do not bring acceptable identification you will not be permitted to test and will lose your test fee.
- Please make sure you have read the full ID policy on the Test Taker Handbook. To download the Test Taker Handbook, visit www.pearsonpte.com/testme. You can also refer to the following page for more information on the PTE Academic ID Policy <http://pearsonpte.com/acceptable-id/>

- IMPORTANT:

- Please be aware that from 15th September 2014 onwards, we will no longer accept any form of Driving License for entry to the test in the UK.
- The only acceptable ID for tests in the UK from this date will be: valid non expired Passport , Biometric Residence Permit or valid non expired EU ID card
- Please ensure you check the ID requirements prior to arriving at the test centre as, should you not have the correct ID, you may not be admitted to test.

Arriving at the Test Center

- On the day of your test, please arrive at the test center 30 minutes before your appointment. This will allow you enough time to complete the check-in procedures before beginning your test.
- You will be asked to store all personal items in a locker or other secure area before entering the testing room. Personal items include but are not limited to: bags, books, notes, mobile phones, pagers, laptops or other personal computers, wallets and watches. You may wish to leave these items at home.
- While you are at the test center, you will be expected to abide by the test center rules and any instructions given by the Test Administrator. If you do not, your appointment may be ended early, your results may be canceled, and you may forfeit your test fee. If you have a question during your appointment, please ask the Test Administrator immediately.
- You will not be allowed to take any personal items with you into the testing room. This includes all bags, books or other materials not authorized for this test, notes, phones, pagers, watches and wallets.

For details about the policies outlined above, visit www.pearsonpte.com/testme and download our latest Test Taker Handbook. If you have questions concerning the content of this test, the test results or the program, please contact Pearson via www.pearsonpte.com/testme.
